

Master FAQ

MIDSTREAM COUNTERPARTIES

• What does this mean for midstream counterparties?

- We expect to continue our operations in the ordinary course throughout this process.
- Whiting has significant liquidity, which will allow us to operate our business in the normal course and maintain productive commercial relationships with the Company's partners and counterparties.
- This announcement is not expected to impact operations and normal commercial relationships are expected to continue with minimal disruption.

• What corporate entities are included in the filings?

- Whiting Petroleum Corporation and certain of its operating subsidiaries have filed for Chapter 11.

• Why should I continue doing business with Whiting?

- Nothing has changed, same people, same relationships, same operations, same focus and same culture of safety.

• How will the filing affect day-to-day operations at Whiting?

- Whiting has significant liquidity to operate in the normal course. Whiting is committed to operating safely and efficiently while it maintains productive relationships with our business partners and midstream counterparties.
- We expect to continue operations throughout the recapitalization process.
- We thank you for all your past support and business and look forward to meeting your expectations for many more years to come.

• How can I obtain more information?

- If you have additional questions, you can continue to reach out to your normal contacts.
- In addition there is a dedicated restructuring call center which can be reached at (800) 330-2531 and a website cases.stretto.com/whitingpetroleum to answer your questions regarding the restructuring.