RECEIVER’S AMENDED CLAIMS REPORT

Receiver Kelly M. Crawford respectfully submits this Amended¹ Claims Report as required by the Order Granting Receiver’s Motion to Approve Claims Adjudication Process [ECF No. 223]².

I.

RETENTION OF A CLAIMS AGENT

In light of the significant number of claims and claim amounts, the Court approved the retention of Stretto, Inc., a nationally recognized claims administrator, to assist the Receiver with the claims process. See Order Granting Receiver's Motion to Approve Claims Adjudication Process. [ECF No. 223].

² The deadline for the Receiver to file his Claims Report was, upon the motion of Receiver, extended by the Court until February 3, 2026. [ECF No. 358].

II.

IDENTIFICATION OF INVESTORS

The Receiver identified persons who invested in the Traders Domain trading program by:

- 1) obtaining information from the Defendants and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission;
- 2) responding to inquiries from investors who learned of the receivership through the website maintained by the Receiver, or through the publication of the receivership in USA Today; and 3) through an online social media campaign developed by Stretto, Inc. that advertised the right to file a claim on social media platforms for 30 days from May 9 through June 8, 2025. In this period, advertisements regarding the Traders Domain claims process were seen more than 7.9 million times by more than 1.3 million users and generated over 26,000 clicks to the Traders Domain landing page managed by the Receiver's Claims Administrator Stretto. In addition, prior to the beginning of the receivership, on December 5, 2023, an assignment for the benefit of creditors proceeding was commenced in Florida's Eleventh Judicial Circuit in relation to Receivership Defendant Algo Capital, LLC styled: In Re: Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors of Algo Capital, LLC To: Philip J. Von Kahle, Case No. 2023-27763-CA-01 (the "Algo Capital ABC"). Investors who invested with Algo Capital, LLC or its affiliates and lost money filed claims in the Algo Capital ABC. Those claims were transferred to the Receiver once the Receiver was appointed and the Algo Capital ABC was terminated.

III.

DISTRIBUTION AND RECEIPT OF CLAIM FORMS

1. The Receiver published the Notice of Publication approved by the Court in USA Today on May 12, 13, and 14, 2025³. The Receiver also posted the Notice of Right to File Claim approved by the Court on the website established by the Receiver at www.tradersdomainreceivership.com.

2. As required by the Order Establishing Claims Adjudication Process, the Receiver emailed and/or mailed the Notice of Right to File Claim with a QR code⁴ for access to the Proof of Claim form approved by the Court to more than 3,800 persons and entities.

3. Pursuant to the Order Establishing Claims Adjudication Process, the Proof of Claim forms were required to be submitted to the Receiver no later than July 28, 2025 (the “Bar Date”). Claims were required to be submitted electronically through a portal established by Stretto, Inc. that was accessed through the receivership website, or by the email address or QR code provided to potential claimants.

4. As the claims were received, they were input into the system maintained by Stretto and each claimant was assigned an identification number to protect their privacy. Claims received from the Algo Capital ABC have an “A” before their claim number.

5. Once the Bar Date passed, all claims, together with all supporting evidence, were reviewed by the Receiver’s team (which included Stretto, Inc., attorneys and paralegals with the Receiver’s local counsel DVC in Miami, Florida, and the Receiver’s attorneys and paralegals in Texas) to formulate the Receiver’s recommendations regarding the claims. For claims involving cryptocurrency the Receiver relied upon Stretto, Inc. personnel who have extensive experience in cryptocurrency, and the cryptocurrency expert Stephen Feinstein who the Receiver retained to assist in the recovery of cryptocurrency. The Receiver also obtained input, as needed, from the Receiver's forensic accountants with Kapila Mukamal CPA's in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

6. As the Receiver and his team reviewed the submitted claims, the Receiver noted a significant number of claimants who failed to provide sufficient support to justify their claim. As a result, on September 10, 2025, the Receiver sent an email or letter to approximately 302 claimants notifying them that their claim would be denied for insufficient information and requesting them to provide additional information to support their claim.⁵ Likewise, for those claimants who invested using cryptocurrency, in order for the Receiver to verify their investment the Receiver needed information regarding the transfer that matched a crypto wallet used by Traders Domain and/or a confirmation of the deposit from Traders Domain. A large number of claimants who invested with cryptocurrency failed to provide this information. Accordingly, on October 29, 2025, the Receiver sent an email to approximately 1,134 claimants and informed them that unless they provided the information required by the Receiver to verify their deposit, their claim would be denied for insufficient information.⁶

IV.

CLAIMS ANALYSIS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

7. The Receiver's recommendation for the claims of the investors and creditors is set forth in Exhibit F attached hereto, and the Receiver requests the Court to approve his recommendations. The Receiver received 2,218 claims totaling $2,265,830,725.60. The total amount of investor and creditor claims, including late filed claims, recommended by the Receiver for claimants, is $127,520,743.41.

8. In many instances a claim was filed based on foreign currency invested or cryptocurrency invested. This required the Receiver's team to convert the foreign currency or cryptocurrency to United States dollars in order to determine a claim amount to recommend to the Court. In making this conversion, the Receiver used the conversion rates in effect as of the date of the investment. The total amount of claims filed, as set forth on Exhibit F, are in United States Dollars, and all recommendations of the Receiver on Exhibit F are in United States Dollars.

9. The primary goal of the Receiver and his team in the review of the claims submitted was to determine from the information provided whether a claimant's money or cryptocurrency was invested in the trading program known as Traders Domain and/or Ares Global a/k/a Trubluefx (the "TD Trading Program"), that is the subject of the CFTC lawsuit.⁷ For this reason, if monies were traced to a named Defendant, an entity owned or controlled by a Defendant, or an entity used by Traders Domain to receive funds for the TD Trading Program, the investment amount was allowed.⁸ If a claimant's money or cryptocurrency was not invested with the foregoing and there was no evidence the funds made their way to the TD Trading Program, the investment amount was not allowed.

⁸ As an abundance of caution, on November 4, 2025, the Receiver filed his Motion to Expand Receivership [ECF No. 354] seeking to add to the receivership certain entities owned or controlled by the Defendants, or that were used to perpetuate the Traders Domain scheme ("the Related Entities"). Claimants who invested in one of these Related Entities are designated on the claims report with a "" in the Note column.

10. The Receiver developed a Reconciliation Code to categorize the Receiver's treatment of the claim.⁹ With respect to 584 claims, the Receiver recommends allowing the claim in the full amount submitted by the claimant. Those claims are coded as "A" on Exhibit F. The Receiver is recommending a lower amount for the remainder of the claims, as explained herein. A code for the reason each claim was either reduced or disallowed is included in Exhibit F. The reasons for the Receiver's recommended reduction or disallowance of claims are as follows:

a. Some investors did not deduct from their claim the monies they received in return for their investment. Because the Defendants operated a Ponzi scheme and there has been no evidence of any interest or legitimate profit earned from the monies received from the investors, any monies an investor received from the Defendants were either a return of the investor's own principal investment or monies from another investor. Accordingly, in his claim recommendation, the Receiver deducted from any principal deposited by an investor with the Defendants, any monies returned to the investor. For instance, if an investor invested $10,000 with the Defendants and received payments of $3,000, the Receiver's claim recommendation is $7,000 for that investor, not $10,000. If an investor received from the Defendants monies in excess of the investor's investment, the investor has no claim in the receivership and indeed should return the excess "false profits" to the receivership. Investors with claims reduced for this reason are coded as “R-2” on Exhibit F. If an investor received payments in excess of the claimant’s principal investment, the claim was disallowed in its entirety and coded as “D-3” on Exhibit F.

b. In many instances, investors filed claims seeking not only the return of their principal investment, but also the return of their promised earnings. Because the Defendants operated a Ponzi scheme and there has been no evidence of the investment monies being invested as represented, there were no earnings from the investment and thus the claims were limited by the Receiver to the principal amount invested. Account balance sheets provided by claimants that showed significant account balances that included false profits were fabrications of the Defendants and disregarded by the Receiver to the extent the balance sheet showed anything other than a deposit. Investors with claims reduced for this reason are coded as “R-1” on Exhibit F.

c. In a significant number of instances, a claimant failed to substantiate his or her claim with sufficient documents or bank records and the Receiver denied or reduced the claim. Indeed, as discussed above, the Receiver sent notices to claimants who had insufficient information to inform them their claim would be denied if they did not provide additional information for the Receiver to confirm the investment. If the claimant can produce documents or bank records to substantiate the claim, the Receiver will reconsider his recommendation. For cryptocurrency in particular, which is a means of commerce intended to be difficult to trace and identify the sender and recipient, it was difficult for the Receiver and his team to verify a claimant’s deposit with Traders Domain without a confirming email of the deposit from Traders Domain. Investors with claims denied or reduced for insufficient documentation are coded as either “D-1” for denied, or “R-4” for reduced, on Exhibit F.

d. In several instances, claimants included investments made with persons or entities who are not listed as Defendants in this lawsuit and are not part of the receivership. Those investments were not recognized nor approved by the Receiver, unless the claimant could provide documentation showing that their money that they invested with a person or entity not in receivership made it to a Traders Domain account in the name of the claimant. Investors with claims reduced for this reason are coded as “R-5” on Exhibit F. Investors with claims denied for this reason are coded as “D-2” on Exhibit F.

e. In certain instances, the claimant included bank fees or other expenses incurred by the claimant in making their investment. The Receiver limited his claim recommendation to the amount of principal invested, without regard to bank fees or other expenses incurred in making the investment. Investors with claims reduced for this reason are coded as “R-3” on Exhibit F.

f. In some instances, the claimant made a mathematical error in the calculation of their claim, and the Receiver used the correct mathematical method to calculate and recommend the value of the claim.

g. In 257 instances, the Receiver received claims after the bar date of July 28, 2025. Claimants who submitted their claim late are designated on the Reconciled Claims Report with a “*” in the Note column. Because there has been no prejudice to the receivership estate caused by the delay in submitting the late filed claim, the Receiver recommends that the claims be considered and approved by the Court as set forth in the Receiver’s Claims Report.

V.

TREATMENT OF CLAIMS

11. This Claims Report contains the Receiver's recommendations only. As set forth above, the recommendations are subject to revision based on additional information needed from numerous investors. Further, the claim amounts are also subject to additional proceedings in the claims approval process, including the Court's final determination of the amount and nature of each claimant's interest in Receivership Assets.

12. The Receiver will provide the Receiver's Claims Report and a cover letter to each claimant advising the claimant of the claim number used to identify the claim¹⁰, and a code indicating why the claim was reduced or denied, if at all, by February 10, 2026. [ECF No. 358]. In addition, the Receiver's Claims Report will be posted on the receivership website.

13. Pursuant to the Order Establishing Claims Adjudication Process, as amended, any objections to the Receiver's recommendations are to be submitted to the Receiver on or before March 5, 2026. [ECF No. 358]. No later than April 24, 2026, the Receiver is required to provide the Court with a copy of all timely unresolved objections and the Receiver's response to such objections. [ECF No. 358]. If necessary, the Court may set a hearing to rule upon any objection.

¹⁰ In order to protect the privacy of the claimant, the Receiver assigned a claim number to the claimant and the public report filed with the court includes only the claim number, not the name of the claimant. If the Court or any party desires to see the names associated with the claims number, the Receiver will make that information available.

VI.

CONCLUSION

This report is the Receiver's recommendation of what he believes to be the most fair and equitable means of handling the 2,218 claims submitted. When claimants receive a copy of this Receiver's Claims Report, they will have an opportunity to determine whether they agree or disagree with the Receiver's recommendation. The Receiver will evaluate any objections received to his claims report and determine whether the Receiver needs to revise his recommendation for a particular claim. If the Receiver determines a revision is necessary, the Receiver will inform the Court. If an objection cannot be resolved by the Receiver, it will be submitted to the Court for resolution.

Respectfully submitted,

CLAIM NUMBER: XXX

RE: Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Plaintiff") v. Traders Domain FX Ltd. d/b/a The Traders Domain, pending in the USDC for the Southern District of Florida under Case No. 1:24-cv-23745-RKA

Dear Claimant:

We are in receipt of your claim submitted in the receivership and it has been assigned the above referenced claim number. In all of your future communications regarding your claim, please refer to your claim number.

At this point, my recommendation to the Court regarding your claim is that your claim should be DENIED because of insufficient documentation to support your claim. Specifically, your claim lacks documentation to verify the source of the funds you invested, such as copies of checks, wire transfers, or records of cryptocurrency transfers. In determining my recommendation, I cannot rely on any emails, statements, or account balances provided by Traders Domain or its brokers.

If you would like me to reconsider the denial of your claim, please submit documents to support your claim within 30 days. You may use the online portal available at the receivership website www.tradersdomainreceivership.com or <https://cases.stretto.com/tradersdomainclaim/content/4022-supporting-documentation-submission/>. CLAIM NUMBER: [REDACTED]

RE: Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Plaintiff") v. Traders Domain FX Ltd. d/b/a The Traders Domain, pending in the USDC for the Southern District of Florida under Case No. 1:24-cv-23745-RKA

Dear Claimant:

We are in receipt of your claim submitted in the receivership, and it has been assigned the above-referenced claim number. In all future communications regarding your claim, please refer to your claim number.

Your claim indicates you invested in Traders Domain or Trubluefx with cryptocurrency. At this point, my recommendation to the Court regarding your claim is that, to the extent of your investment of cryptocurrency, your claim should be DENIED because of insufficient documentation to support the cryptocurrency portion of your claim. Specifically, your claim lacks documentation to verify the source of the funds you invested and corroborate the cryptocurrency transfers. In determining the allowed amount of your claim, I cannot rely solely on any emails, statements, or account balances provided by Traders Domain or its brokers.

As a result, for each crypto/digital asset transaction in your claim, please provide me with the following:

- Type (Investment or Payout)
- Date/Time stamp of transaction
- Amount (e.g., 1.50, 0.25, 45,000, etc.)
- Currency (ETH, BTC, USDT, etc.)

- USD equivalent (if different than Amount)
- Transaction hash
- Sending Address (crypto wallet address)
- Receive Address (crypto wallet address)
- Crypto exchange used (if applicable)
- TD confirmation email attached? (Y/N)
- Attach for each deposit/investment:
 - support@thetradersdomain.com email confirming deposit ("The Traders Domain | Successful Deposit")

If you would like me to reconsider the denial of your claim, please submit the foregoing information to support your claim within 30 days. To download a spreadsheet to complete with the requested information and upload that information, you may use the online portal available at <https://cases.stretto.com/tradersdomainclaim/> and go to the Crypto Claim Submission Tab at the top.
